

CONTENTS

Foreword . . . . .	1
POPULATIONS AND MANAGEMENT
Effective population sizes for bighorn sheep. Nancy N. FitzSimmons and Steven W. Buskirk . . . . .	1
Why is Montana the land of giant rams? Duncan Gilchrist . . . . .	8
Bighorn sheep movements and summer lamb mortality in central Idaho. James J. and Holly A. Akenson . . . . .	14
Trophy hunting of Dall sheep in Alaska; an evaluation of the biological implications. Francis J. Singer and Lyman Nichols. . . . .	28
Managing bighorn habitat from a landscape perspective. James A. Bailey . . . . .	49
Management implications of an intensive study of winter foraging ecology of bighorn sheep. Nike J. Goodson and David R. Stevens . . . . .	58
Status of mountain sheep in Morgan Creek, east-central Idaho. Gina L. Karasek, Michael D. Scott and James M. Peek . . . . .	68
Population dynamics, seasonal distribution and movement patterns of the Laramie Peak bighorn sheep herd. Daniel A. Hengel, Stanley H. Anderson and William G. Hepworth . . . . .	83
Decline and habitat abandonment by bighorn sheep on Battlement Mesa, Colorado, 1906-1990. Mary L. Cunningham and James A. Bailey . . . . .	97
Critique of carrying capacity concepts concerning Dall sheep. Wayne E. Heimer . . . . .	111
Determining the future of bighorn herds in wilderness areas. James A. Bailey and Melanie M. Woolever . . . . .	121
BIGHORN DISEASES
Effect of pneumonia on population size and lamb recruitment in Whiskey Mountain bighorn sheep. Thomas J. Ryder, Elizabeth S. Williams, Kenneth W. Mills, K. H. Bowles and E. Tom Thorne . . . . .	136
Lamb survival and herd status of the Lostine bighorn herd following a Pasteurella die-off. Victor L. Coggins . . . . .	147

Failure of an experimental Pasteurella haemolytica vaccine to prevent respiratory disease and death in bighorn sheep after exposure to domestic sheep. William J. Foreyt . . . . .	155
Naturally occurring pneumonia in caesarian-derived Rocky Mountain bighorn sheep lambs. Alton C. S. Ward, David L. Hunter, Martha D. Jaworski, V. Michael Lane, Jerry L. Zaugg, and Marie S. Bulgin . . .	164
Theoretical concepts of disease versus nutrition as primary factors in population regulation of wild sheep. Mike R. Dunbar . . . . .	174
Pharyngeal microflora of Dall and domestic sheep in Alaska: management implications. Wayne E. Heimer, Randall L. Zarnke and Francis J. Mauer .	193
Gastrointestinal parasites of bighorn sheep in western Montana and their relationship to herd health. David E. Worley and Floyd M. Seese . . . . .	202
Experimental contact association between bighorn sheep, elk and deer with known Pasteurella haemolytica infections. William J. Foreyt . . . . .	213
MANAGEMENT AND RESEARCH TECHNIQUES
Seasonal changes in lamb:ewe ratios. Jon T. Jorgenson . . . . .	219
Use of age ratios to predict bighorn sheep population dynamics. Marco Festa-Bianchet . . . . .	227
Estimation of Dall sheep numbers in the Wrangell-St. Elias National Park and Preserve. Dale Strickland, Lyman L. McDonald, Dale Taylor, Kurt Jenkins, and John Kern . . . . .	237
Preliminary tests of a mountain sheep habitat model using a geographic information system. Vernon C. Bleich, Matthew C. Nicholson, Amanda T. Lombard, and Peter V. August . . . . .	256
HABITAT RELATIONS
Foraging behavior and vegetation responses to prescribed burning on bighorn sheep winter range. Doug McWhirter, Scott Smith, Evelyn Merrill, and Larry Irwin . . . . .	264
The role of precipitation and temperature in the winter range diet quality of mountain sheep of the Mount Baxter herd, Sierra Nevada. John D. Wehausen . . . . .	279

MOUNTAIN GOATS

- Preliminary observations of timing and causes of mountain goat kid mortality in west-central Alberta.
Kirby G. Smith, Martin A. Urquhart, and Marco Festa-Bianchet . . . . . 293

- Winter habitat selection by mountain goats in the north-central Cascades.
Brian A. Gilbert and Kenneth J. Raedeke . . . . . 305

- Mountain goat habitat of Wyoming's Beartooth Plateau: implications for management.
Lisa A. Haynes . . . . . 325

- Population dynamics and behavior of mountain goats using Elliott Ridge, Gore Range, Colorado.
Anne Hopkins, James P. Fitzgerald, Alex Chappell, and Gene Byrne . . . . . 340

- Social dominance and its influence on the foraging efficiency of the mountain goat: a preliminary report.
Francois Fournier . . . . . 357

POSTER SESSION ABSTRACTS

- Mitochondrial DNA variation and genetic population structure in Rocky Mountain bighorn sheep.
Gordon Luikart . . . . . 372

- Modelling Dall sheep habitat in the northern Yukon.
Manon Desforges and Jean Carey . . . . . 373

- Population dynamics of bighorn sheep using reclaimed habitat in open pit coal mines in west-central Alberta.
Beth MacCallum . . . . . 374

- Spinster bighorn ewe groups in the Arkansas River Canyon, Canon City, Colorado.
Dale F. Reed, Michael W. Miller, and Jack Vayhinger . . . 375

- Attendants at the 1992 Northern Wild Sheep and Goat Council . . . 376

- Guidelines of the Northern Wild Sheep and Goat Council . . . . . 382
